Dear Reader,

Welcome to my summer reading program!

With a great book and a big imagination, the possibilities are endless! Opening a book to read is just a start to another exciting adventure—and one we can embark on without ever leaving home.

I encourage you to read books of your choosing, and record them here to track your progress throughout the summer. When you are finished have your parents sign your list, and either email or mail it to me. At the end, we will get together for a special party, where you will receive an official certificate recognizing your commitment to reading. Invitations to the special party will be mailed to you. For more information, feel free to visit my website: repandersson.com.

Enjoy your summer,

Steve Andersson
