TITLE: Empowering vs. Enabling with Adam Russo

“I have failed over and over in my life and that is why I succeed.”

-Michael Jordan

No parent hopes their child fails. However, our inability to let our kids fail does them a great disservice.

When teaching children life skills, empathy can get you only so far, what about teaching grit and failure?

Join us for District 303 Parent University- Empowering vs. Enabling on Thursday, April 27 at 6:00 p.m. in the Board Room of the District 303 Administration Building, 201 S. 7th St. in St. Charles.

The session will be led by the Chairman & CEO of Edgewood Clinical Services Mr. Adam Russo. Over the past several years, Adam has spoken hundreds of times to many organizations (including the school districts of Naperville, Plainfield, Bolingbrook, Lisle, Wheaton) and the Illinois Association of School Workers about how to best motivate, discipline, and challenge young people so they may thrive in their adult life.

Due to space limitations, we are limiting this session to the first 70 RSVP's. Click here to RSVP and reserve your place.
