Gaga Ball Fun at Davis

A totally new and fun Gaga Ball Pit was just installed on the Davis Primary playground for all to enjoy. Davis Physical Education and Wellness teacher, Nancy Mattson, was recently awarded a $7,620 grant through Making Kane County Fit for Kids to fund the project.

"I wrote the grant for children to be active and engaged with peers. The Gaga Ball Game is a popular fast-moving and high-energy game that everyone can play. This game helps build better relationships in our whole school community," expressed Mattson.

Playing Gaga Ball gives students more options for games to play during recess or PE, and can also be used by other families and the community after school when the playground is open. The rules for Gaga Ball are displayed but students can choose to play variations of the game and make their own rules. The typical fast-paced and high-energy game is played in an octagonal pit with a soft foam ball. It combines the skills of dodging, striking, running, and jumping, while trying to hit opponents with a ball below the knees. Players need to keep moving to avoid getting hit by the ball. Students have loved playing the game and have enjoyed teaching others how to play and being part of different teams each time they play.

Orchestra Fest Brings Music Enthusiasts Together

The 8th-grade orchestra students joined students from St. Charles East and North for the annual Orchestra Fest on October 11. This event showcases our high school orchestra programs for 8th grade students and families. Students rehearsed together, had all their questions answered about high school orchestra during the insightful Q&A, and enjoyed a pizza dinner. The evening concluded with a wonderful concert for family and friends, led by Andy Masters (STCN), Angie Wifler (STCE), Don Kovach and Jim Pesek (WMS) and Sandy Pogge (TMS).

Fox Ridge Early Childhood Center hosted its very first "Community Swap" event during the October Parent/Guardian-Teacher Conferences. The event was designed to build community while helping others.

Parent and staff volunteers assisted with the event and Fox Ridge community members participated in one of 3 ways: donate, "shop," or donate & "shop." Families and staff donated clothes of all sizes, books, toys and even dishes to create a cost-free shopping experience.

"We received enough donations to fill the entire Community Room with books, toys, games, backpacks, clothing, winter gear, shoes, baby supplies, ride-on toys, and so much more," said Fox Ridge Social Worker Melissa Plodzien. Readerlink Distribution Center Warehouse in Romeoville donated over 1,000 brand-new books for infants, toddlers, and school age children to help get books into homes. Some children were so excited about their new finds that they rode the toys out the front door.

After the event, the rest of the donations were packed with help from the District 303 Facilities Department and were donated to the St. Charles Salvation Army.

Judges Present on the “Worries of the World Wide Web”

As part of their first assembly of the year, Wredling students heard Kane County Judges present “Worries of the World Wide Web,” a program created to address the increasing problem of cyberbullying, electronic harassment, and sexting/pornography.

The program, geared toward middle school, addresses the social and legal consequences of potentially criminal conduct with the goal of increasing awareness of what cyberbullying, harassment, and sexting is, and how it may impact the lives of those students involved.

Judge Clint Hull and Judge Sandra Parga presented various case scenarios, news articles, and discussed their experiences on the topics. Students had the opportunity to ask questions and engaged in thoughtful discussions about their own cell phone, technology, and social media use. Prior to the assembly, families were also invited to attend a presentation by the judges.

Parga and Hull, both District 303 alumni, created the program after talking to middle school teachers who indicated that their students were being negatively impacted through social media use. Judge Parga and Hull along with other Kane County Judges have been presenting the program throughout Northern Illinois Counties to both students and their parents for the past six years. In 2016–17, the Illinois Judges Association (IJA) worked with Judges Boles and Hull and expanded the program statewide. The first training session for the program was conducted in January of 2017 where over 70 judges were trained to give this presentation.

Standard Response Protocol (SRP)

The District adopted the Standard Response Protocol (SRP) from the I Love U Guys Foundation last spring. The SRP is designed to provide consistent, clear, shared language and actions among all students, staff and first responders during emergencies. It is a trusted brand for several preK-12 school districts and higher education across the country. Locally, the SRP is utilized in many area school districts and has the support of the St. Charles Police Department and other local emergency response agencies.

Is Your Contact Information Up-to-date?

Ensure You're Getting Timely District Alerts

District 303 uses Finalsite (formerly ParentLink) to send mass notices to multiple people simultaneously. Informational or emergency messages are sent to the contact information you have on file. While email is the primary way we send communications, text or voice calls may also be sent. To receive emergency or other timely messages, we strongly encourage families to enable text notifications.

Please note, unsubscribing from ParentLink emails or replying "stop" to text messages will disable all informational messages from your child(s) school and the District. You will still receive emergency communications. Visit the Home Access Center website for information on how to view and edit your contact settings.

There are so many great things happening in art classrooms throughout District 303. At Wild Rose, kindness has been the focus this school year. And for a school-wide art project led by Valerie Kelly, students in all grade levels helped create a “Kindness Town” based on the book “The Sound of Kindness” by Amy Ludwig VanDerwater. During their art class, students in each grade level worked on creating different elements of the collaborative mural.

Kindergarten students created the clouds, 1st graders drew abstract trees, 2nd graders drew kites and animals, 3rd and 4th graders worked on drawing and coloring the houses, shops and flowers, and the 5th graders worked on the streets, mountains, rolling hills, ponds, and the people. Students expressed how much fun they had working on their individual projects but loved even more seeing the finished mural, which they can admire every time they walk the hallways.

In the art classroom at Davis, students have to first walk through a new maze to get to their classroom. Davis Art Teacher Joshua Lundquist designed and built the colorful maze to help students who have artist's block. The maze has question prompts, pictures, and keywords to inspire students to come up with new ideas for their art projects, helping them realize that inspiration can come from anywhere.
