SCN Theatre Prepares Fall Play:
LOVE/SICK
By John Cariani

SCN Theatre will present Love/Sick by John Cariani on Thursday, November 1, through Saturday, November 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the St. Charles North Auditorium.

"It's 7:30 on a Friday night in late June in an alternate suburban reality." John Cariani, known for Almost, Maine, guides us through nine darkly humorous and visceral vignettes that characterize the very real struggles, frustrations, and passions of human relationships. From break-ups, boredom and uncertainty, to unbridled infatuation and destiny, Cariani captures an honest portrayal of love with which we can all identify.

The show is directed by Ms. Natalee Hryniewicz, and with a cast of 16 students and around 25 tech students, over 40 students are involved to create this funny and cerebral production. It will definitely be a theatrical experience you won't want to miss this fall!

"A dark, amusing look at romance...strikes just the right balance between wisdom and whimsy...light, bright, anti-romantic, and engaging." —The Hartford Courant.

Entertaining and fun. A satisfyingly dark look at this thing we call love." —BroadwayWorld.com.

WHAT IS PARENT UNIVERSITY?

Parent University was developed in response to the need for programming to address the social and emotional needs of students in District 303. The content has evolved over the years to include additional topics on issues facing today's youth.

District 303 regards parent engagement as fundamental to the success of our students both inside and outside of the classroom. Parent University is designed to create partnerships between school and home, and provide a place where parents and staff members can learn together.

Join us for Parent University programs aimed at engaging local experts, parents and school staff in conversations about ways in which we can collectively strengthen our communities. Programs are free and open to the public.

In addition to programming at District 303 sites, Centennial Counseling will lead monthly informational sessions. Please scroll down to see more details about the sessions being offered by Centennial Counseling.

HONOR YOUR 2019 GRADUATE

WITH A YEARBOOK
PARENT AD

A long standing tradition for Saint Charles North's students, the Polaris yearbook offers an opportunity for you to submit a photo and special message for your soon-to-be graduate.

Typically, parents write about how proud they are of their child and wish them luck as they leave high school. Some even choose to include a small inside joke, family saying or special quote.

We always knew you were destined for great things. We're honored and proud to see you grow into such a caring and generous human being. Congrats on this big milestone, buckle up it's just the beginning. It's not where you start, it's where you finish; but most importantly it is the journey.
